

BETHUNE, DAVID S., lawyer, State senator, and member constitutional convention, 1901, was born in Sumter County, S. C.; son of John and Frances (Shaw) Bethune, of Pike and Bullock Counties. He graduated from the Oglethorpe university, Midway, Ga., in 1858. He began the practice of law at Union Springs, was State senator, 1896-97, and a member of the constitutional convention of 1901. During the War of Secession he was a member of the 1st Alabama volunteers, 1861, Heutenant, Co. B, 51st Alabama cavalry regiment, and later adjutant of the latter company. He is a Democrat and a Presbyterian. Married: (1) in November, 1864, to C. F. McLean; (2) in September, 1891, to M. V. McLean. Last residence: Union Springs.